ROSEWOOD MANOR

Rosewood Manor, located in beautiful Scottsboro, Alabama offers two assisted living communities in a gracious environment for both Men and Women. Our communities offer a full-time Registered Nurse on staff to oversee the care and wellbeing of our residents as well as a full-time Program Manager to plan and lead social, recreational and educational programs featuring religious programming, exercise, planned outings to local restaurants and attractions as well as games and special entertainment.

Our activities program also features the Never 2 Late activity system offering a large variety of personal and group activities for your recreational, inspirational and educational enjoyment. We also offer free local transportation via our community van for outings, shopping and medical appointments.

Our Special Care Assisted Living Community provides an atmosphere of warmth and nurturing in a home like environment. We are a certified Best Friends Community. The Best Friends Approach is a nationally recognized approach to care of persons with Alzheimer's Disease or other dementias. Hospice Services are available from local providers along with a variety of additional therapies such as Occupational, Physical, Speech, Behavioral Health and Pain management.

Rosewood Manor has been recognized locally as "People's Choice" in Assisted Living for eight years in a row.

Our communities offer all-inclusive pricing. There are never any add on cost or levels of care, providing you the peace of mind that comes with knowing that there will never be a surprise on your bill.

"My mother has lived at Rosewood Manor since April and it is her home. She enjoys all the activities, especially bingo. The bond she has made with the employees is like family. She has always kept to herself but now she has made many friends. For myself, Rosewood Manor has been a blessing. I know my mother is loved and being taken care of in a safe, family like environment."

“My Dad loves it there. The staff takes care of everything he needs. They have special activities every month that families can take part in. I sleep well at night knowing my dad is in such an amazing place.”
